

Level 2:

This is Baton and handcuff required for Level 2 security guard registration in the State of New Mexico. This class will be conducted to ASP standards and will be primarily physical and hands on. The baton portion of the course may be strenuous, and students should be in reasonably good physical condition to undertake it. Students will be on time at the appointed training site and are expected to have a baton and handcuffs with appropriate carriers. No other weapons or equipment are required for this course and will not be allowed in the classroom or on the training site.

Training time for this portion of Level 2 qualification is approximately fourteen hours over a two-day period. The final exam will be hands on demonstration by the student. Due to the type of training a minimum of three students is required for this portion of the course to be held. The charge for the handcuff and baton portion of the course $144.00, $155.79 with NM state tax included.
